Crud Example Project Dependencies

This document is produced by the java class ProjectGraph and show Eclipse project build path dependencies. A read arrow to a project means that the projected is included in the build path and also exported. A gray arrow indicates that the project is not exported. Jar files are marked with green circles if exported otherwise marked with a red rectangle.